Dehradun, July 5, 2024 - The Fulbright Teachers for Global Classrooms Program, a prestigious initiative aimed at fostering educational exchange and professional development, is being hosted in India from July 5 to July 11, 2024. This program is being organized in association with the School Education Department of Uttarakhand, welcoming U.S. Fulbright Scholar teachers to the city of Dehradun.

Participants and Hosts

The program features distinguished U.S. Fulbright Scholar teachers Danielle Brown and Corinna Christman. Their expertise and insights are anticipated to bring significant contributions to the local educational landscape. The program also honors the presence of the host Indian Fulbright Distinguished Awards in Teaching (DAI) Scholar, Ramesh Prasad Badoni, who brings a wealth of knowledge and experience from the Indian education system.

Premlata Bourai, the host principal from Government Girls Inter College, Rajpur Road, Dehradun (PM Shree School), will facilitate the program at the designated venue. The involvement of these esteemed educators underscores the program's commitment to fostering a collaborative and enriching environment for all participants.
